

Time is the chain of elementary events.

Each event results from one or more other events.

An event is an interaction between things.

An event is elementary if these things are.

A thing is any entity that is able to interact with other things.

FULL STOP.