Deduction

renders

absolute certainty*.

However, this certainty
is only an irrefutable truth
if all premises are true*.

Someone said:
"I think you're right.".

I said: "I AM right.

Not because it's me, I am just a simple nincompoop like you, but because I deduced it from ascertained truths.".
