

Mark Twain:

It's no wonder truth
is stranger than fiction.
Fiction has to make sense.

Henk Reints:

Truth does make sense, but Homo Sapihahhah Stultus mostly refuses to recognise it.

Dialogo di Galileo Galilei Linceo

due ne i congressi di quattro giornate si discorre sopra i due massimi sistemi del mondo Tolemaico, e Copernicano;

where in the four-day gatherings the two greatest world systems, Ptolemaic and Copernican, are discussed; @p.220:

SALV. Hor vedete, como è facile da intendersi.

Now you see, how easy it is to understand.

SAGR. Tali sono tutte le cose vere, doppo che son trouato, ma il punto stà nel saperle trouare.

Such are all true things, after they have been found, but the point is (in the) knowing [how] to find them.

Albert Schweitzer:

*It is the fate of every truth
to be an object of ridicule
when it is first acclaimed.*

Max Planck:

*A scientific truth does not triumph
by convincing its opponents
and making them see the light,
but rather because
its opponents eventually die
and a new generation grows up
that is familiar with it.*

Dorothy L. Sayers:

*The great advantage
about telling the truth
is that nobody ever believes it.*
